An update for you. Actually I think I made some revisions myself and sent them to you last week.

But we are not providing anything written to the state folks at the meeting. Do you have ten minutes today for me to bring you up to speed on the tone/purpose/plan for the meeting?

Hi Michele,

I just wanted to confirm that nobody commented on the draft materials. I know you gave a deadline, but in case anyone is likely to be late, I wanted to remind you that we are very booked tomorrow morning up until the time of the call and won't have time to address any comments.

Team,

Here is a revised checklist and memo for your review. The plan is to walk through the memo with the state folks on Tuesday with Cadmus on the phone. If you have any comments, in order for it to be revised in time for the meeting, please provide any input by end of the day tomorrow, or if you work on it over the weekend, Sunday night.

Please copy everyone with your comments, Cadmus can bring to look at it Monday morning.
